

New Sales Reps Join the Team at Michigan Biz Search, LLC

HARTLAND, MICHIGAN, October 10, 2006 — Michigan Biz Search, LLC, today announced the addition of James OHara, Julian Busbee, and Scott Williams to its sales staff. Michigan Biz Search is an easy-to-use marketing toolkit for small businesses, providing one-click web updates, online coupons, search engine listings, directory listings, and more – all for less than $100 per year.

James OHara has more than 10 years of sales and management experience in business-to-business sales and client base development. He graduated from Sullivan College with an Associates of Science degree in Business Administration and Marketing, and has also served as Chapter President of the American Marketing Association.

Julian Busbee has more than 15 years of sales experience, with a focus in automotive sales and sales engineering. He holds a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Oakland University, and also a diploma from the American Management Association in New York with a major in Professional Sales/Management. He also earned a Journeyman Diploma/License from General Motors Apprentice School in Michigan.

Scott Williams joined the firm with more than 8 years of sales experience in internet, high tech, and telecom sales. He has extensive experience in the telecom industry, specializing in business-to-business sales, lead generation, and customer relationship management. He graduated from Western Michigan University with a bachelor's degree in Political Science.
